Our Condolences

The entire staff of the United States Consulate General in Amsterdam would like to extend our deepest condolences to the families of those who lost their lives on Turkish Airlines Flight 1951 on Wednesday, February 25, 2009 in Haarlemmermeer, The Netherlands. Our thoughts are also with those passengers who survived the crash, especially the injured who are still being hospitalized and recovering from their injuries.

At such a difficult time, we stand ready to assist the American citizens and their families who suffered as a result of this incident, and keep in our thoughts all those who have been so deeply affected by this tragedy.
